I am a self-motivated, personable, and enthusiastic software developer with 3 years of experience as well as a general manager/community organizer with more than 5 years' experience. After completing my fullstack bootcamp, I worked at a small online gallery startup part time getting plenty of experience working in a professional environment, while also captaining a climbing gym and climbing community. I am currently seeking to fully switch to the tech field to take my career to the next level.

EDUCATION

The Ohio State University Full Stack Bootcamp (January – July 2020)

EXPERIENCE

Nowhere gallery, Front End Developer, (July 2020 – August 2023)
- Nowhere Gallery is an artist-run gallery and boutique focusing on large-scale generative art
- Created and launched a new landing page in the first month
- Followed a Figma board as a guide to build new live web pages using React, Docker, Vite, HTML, CSS, and wrote tests using Jest
- Worked on a small team of developers working remotely with Trello, Discord, Github and weekly standup meetings

GP81 Climbing, General Manager, (February 2018 – August 2023)
- GP81 was NYC's only independent climbing gym, focused on the climbing community
- Managed and grew a team of around 14 people, including 5 managers
- Executed and planned a 6,000 ft expansion
- Doubled as company webmaster (73K annual views in 2022, up 33% from 2021), managed photo galleries, Google calendar integrations, and updates
- Devised opportunities for staff to develop and grow in order to maintain high facility standards for customer satisfaction and staff career success
- Hired and trained new hires on the procedures, daily operations, gym software, and GP81 values
- Scheduled product orders and supplies while tracking areas of loss and identifying opportunities for improvement
- Organized charity events, partnering with community leaders, and raised thousands of dollars
- Directed two annual climbing competitions with over 200 participants and upwards of 350 spectators
